Stewards today questioned dual license holder S Hillebrand regarding matters relating to him riding track work at Fannie Bay racecourse.

S Hillebrand was advised that under AR82 no person while mounted on a horse is permitted to use any telephone, radio or other electronic appliance, apparatus, instrument or equipment capable of receiving, transmitting or playing information. S Hillebrand was also reminded that under AR87AAA when mounted on any horse during periods of darkness he must have an approved light attached to his helmet and it must be turned on and functional.

S Hillebrand was further advised that the Club's track supervisor is employed as an official and as such he should ensure that he obeys any proper direction given by the track supervisor and that he should conduct himself in an appropriate manner towards all officials including the track supervisor.

Swab samples were taken from all winners.
