Stewards were of the opinion that jockey L Crow had stopped riding and attempted to straighten when her mount commenced to shift ground and therefore no further action was taken.

DARWIN RACING

Vale Melanie Tyndall

(21 March 1987 - 31 August 2019)

TWO years ago to the day, the thoroughbred racing industry of the Northern Territory suffered a tragic loss when one of its most beloved members, Melanie Tyndall, passed away following a race fall at Fannie Bay Racecourse on 31 August, 2019.

Born in South Australia on 21 March 1987, Melanie Joy Tyndall spent the majority of her youth in her home state before moving to the Territory in 2013 to further her career as a jockey.

She excelled in her chosen profession, riding 150 winners and amassing a further 495 placings from 1,748 career rides. She rode her first winner, Brookman, at Ceduna on 17 January 2009, with her first metropolitan success coming aboard Grand Taj at Morphettville on 25 August 2011.

Melanie's first win in the Top End, her 57th career success, came aboard Savannah Prince on 6 October 2012, and she continued to make her mark throughout her years in the saddle. She rode seven raceday trebles, her last at Katherine only a fortnight before her tragic accident, and also collected 17 doubles.

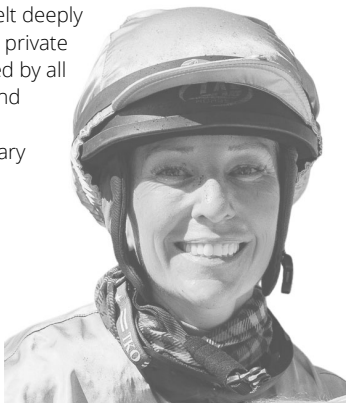

Her final win, her 150th, came aboard Princess Leah at Fannie Bay on the day she died.

Melanie's biggest win came in the 2015 Rosebowl in Darwin on Ambrosia, while other feature-race wins included the Katherine Cup, Penong Cup, Silver City Cup (Broken Hill), Hawker Cup and Quorn Cup.

Melanie also had a desire to help her local community, and joined the Northern Territory Police Force in May 2017. After graduating, she served two years in Katherine before being posted to Casuarina Police Station in Darwin.

She was a hard-working and dedicated police officer, and combining her two loves of policing and horses, she had successfully completed the mounted police rider assessment.

Melanie was a much respected member of the tight-knit NT racing family, and her death was felt deeply by the whole industry. A quite and private individual, she was universally loved by all who came into contact with her, and we remember Melanie with great fondness on the second anniversary of her tragic passing.

NATIONAL JOCKEYS TRUST

NATIONAL JOCKEYS TRUST

The National Jockeys Trust celebrates the achievements of former jockeys and current jockeys, commemorates those who have lost their lives and raises awareness and funds for the National Jockeys Trust.

The principal purpose of the National Jockeys Trust is to provide support for former and current jockeys, and their families who are in necessitous circumstances as a result of serious injury, illness or death of a jockey. The National Jockeys Trust has provided funds to more than 331 jockeys and their families, with financial assistance exceeding $ 4.4 million.

There are over 860 jockeys registered in Australia and here are some statistics that support the need for the NJT.

- 890 Australian jockeys have been killed in race falls since 1847
- Approximately 200 riders are injured each year on Australian racetracks
- Combined with trackwork, we have nearly 500 falls annually
- 89% of jockeys will have a fall that requires medical assistance
- 9% have fallen more than 20 times
- Each year 40% of jockeys will have a fall that will prevent them from riding for an average of 5 weeks.
- Approx 5% of these falls would be termed career-ending injuries
- Over 50% of Australian jockeys earn less than $60,000 per year (before expenses)
- It is estimated that in the next 10 years we will see 10-12 jockey deaths and 50 jockeys will suffer career ending injuries including paraplegia, quadriplegia and severe brain injury
